BLUE RIDGE CAMP POLICIES & REGULATIONS

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION DETAILS IMPORTANT POLICIES WHICH BLUE RIDGE CAMP ASKS ALL GROUPS TO ABIDE BY. PLEASE ADHERE TO OUR POLICIES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE DURATION OF YOUR STAY.

- 1) Blue Ridge Camp accepts no responsibility for individuals health or medical care during their stay, however can inform all Retreat Groups that Blue Ridge Camp is on a 911 system within Rabun County.
- 2) Blue Ridge Camp operates a NON Smoking Policy within all indoor/outdoor facility areas within the Camp perimeter. Please inform your Group to refrain from smoking throughout the duration of your stay for the sake of the comfort and safety of all guests.
- 3) No personal fireworks, firearms or knives are permitted into Camp.
- 4) Please advise your Group that possession of any controlled substances is against Camp policy.
- 5) Blue Ridge Camp is not responsible for any personal belongings, articles of clothing that become damaged or missing in transit, loss or theft.
- 6) All waterfront areas at Blue Ridge Camp are off limits except during scheduled waterfront times where a certified Lifeguard is on duty.
- 7) Blue Ridge Camp reserves the right to deduct damage costs from the deposit submitted prior to arrival. Any damage to buildings, equipment or room furnishings amounting to a cost greater than that of the deposit, will result in the Retreat Group being charged for the outstanding amount. Each Retreat Group is required to submit a $1000 deposit. The deposit will be considered as part of the total payment once we have checked the facility areas used prior to the Retreat Groups dismissal. All fees are due 2 weeks prior to arrival date. Blue Ridge Camp reserves the right to issue full deposit refunds for any cancellation made in writing to Blue Ridge Directors, within 30 days of the Retreat Groups arrival date.
- 8) Blue Ridge Camp asks that all Retreat Groups leave facilities in the condition that they were found. We ask that all trash is disposed of in the trash cans provided at the front of each building. We also ask that any items used as decoration within any cabin/building be disposed of prior to departure.
- 9) Pets are not allowed at Blue Ridge Camp.
- 10) Blue Ridge Camp asks that all vehicles be parked in the designated parking lot area. Parking on the grass or any other area outside the parking lot is prohibited.
- 11) Blue Ridge Camp does not allow any open flames, including candles, to be used inside any building on Camp property.
- 12) Blue Ridge Camp asks that specific permission is to be obtained from a Director, for any non- scheduled program or of an unusual nature.
- 13) Blue Ridge Camp reserves the right to intervene should any Group fails to comply with any of the above policies or regulations .
- 14) Blue Ridge Camp requires a Certificate of Insurance 1 month prior to retreat date.

TERMS & CONDITIONS AGREEMENT

- ✓ Your deposit of $1000.00 is considered as part of the payment once the facility areas used are checked and deemed of an appropriate condition prior to our Groups dismissal. Your cost: $--- per person. Checks made payable to CAMP CONSULT CORPORATION.
